The prayer deserves only to be rejected having regard to the fact that the order directing stoppage of the work and calling for compliance report was passed as far as back on 18.01.2018. 5. By this order, we reiterate the direction that no further work shall be undertaken in the area in question, if they had already commenced with it which would include any other activity relating to laying of the second railway track. 6. We make it abundantly clear that the railway authorities are bound to follow the steps recommended by the Committee in terms of our order dated 18.01.2018 which was issued in larger public interest keeping in view the Principle of Sustainable Development and Precautionary Principle. If the railway authorities fail to comply with the directions, appropriate coercive orders shall follow. 7. List the case on 20th November, 2018. .....,JM (S.P.
