	Date and Remarks	Orders of the Tribunal
	Item No. 3 October 17, 2014	This application has been filed for a direction to close all hazardous industries functioning within the territory of Delhi including steel pickling industries. As it is admitted that the DPCC is taking appropriate actions in this regard, we are of the view that no further issue is anymore in the existence for the purpose of adjudication. Accordingly, the application no. 159/2013 stands disposed of as nothing survives in this case. We make it clear that while considering the applications of individual units and also existing units, the DPCC shall not grant permission to any of the units which are discharging untreated effluents directly or indirectly into the river Yamuna and are not following the Hazardous Waste Management Rules. Needless to state that if in the event the applicant finds that the DPCC is acting against the interest of the environment, it is open to the applicant or any of the persons who are affected to approach this Tribunal in the manner known to law.

With the above direction, the application no. 159/2013 stands disposed of with no order as to cost. Accordingly, M.A. Nos. 762/2013, 767/2013 and 891/2013 are closed.
